[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN]

DATES TO DECEMBER 3

Trial of the Last Democratic President

RICHMOND Dec 5 In the Davis trial this morning [illegible] Mr Dana [illegible] this morning for the government. He argued that the 14th amendment [illegible] of punishment by the defendant was a penal statute but was merely a change in the political system ... trustworthy persons ... preserve purity in the administration of the government. It was a measure of prevention to secure the country against filling offices with persons who [illegible] ... If it had been intended ... the utmost ... in legislation seeing that ... as well as the ... punishment of those who ... and ... leave the person ... or ... expose to penalties of death or imprisonment as pronounced in the Constitution before the amendment it was an expression of the public as to the fitness of persons who had engaged in the rebellion after breaking their oaths to hold office again O Conner argued that from the very nature of the civil war it was impossible to follow it up by trials for treason conducted with the fairness required by law He declared it utterly repugnant to the world s idea of humanity that the leaders of a conquered force after being recognized during the war as equal and honorable men should be searched ... to be hanged as traitors He maintained that the Government and the people never intended ... and for this reason the Fourteenth Amendment had been adopted It was a constitutional provision which executed itself

The Courts and the Newspapers

INDIANAPOLIS Dec 5 —In the trial of Mrs Glem for the murder of Young and wife Judge Chapman issued an order forbidding the newspapers to publish the report of the testimony Notwithstanding the order, the morning papers appeared with full reports yesterday whereupon the Judge ordered the arrest of the managing editors of both these journals for contempt of Court and fined the reporters present $25 each Great feeling was manifested on the part of the public The editors declare their intention to test the justice of the case This morning the counsel for the defence who had applied for an order suppressing the publication withdrew the application whereupon the Judge rescinded the order and the community became calm last night.

Work on the Union Pacific Railroad

The Salt Lake Telegraph of November 20th has the following

We returned yesterday afternoon from Weber Canyon whither we had been since Monday to look at the progress of the grading We had heard a good deal of the heavy work being done in that canyon and wanted to see it; besides we had some anxiety to satisfy ourself on the probability or improbability of the iron horse making its way to our valley on New Year s Day

We have returned to the sanctum satisfied that railroading in that canyon is no child's play that it is advancing grandly by the well directed labor of strong sinewy arms that where a man can be worked to advantage, there he is and that the whole canyon is alive with skilled and experienced men but the grading tunneling and bridging there are not likely to be completed in 1868

We went over the entire works and are fully satisfied that none of the reported difficulties had been exaggerated We have very recently passed over the whole of the traveled constructed line from Omaha to Sacramento, and we have no hesitation in saying that the work in Weber Canyon is equal to the best on the great Pacific Railroad is the next in importance—if not the rival for the highest honors to that of the construction over the Sierra Nevadas In point of substantiality well built masonry and finished grading we have seen nothing superior to the work in Weber Canyon and very little to compare with it —it is indeed magnificent labor It is too late in the season to invite visiting into the mountains and the roads are the very smoothest, otherwise we would suggest that a run through Weber Canyon would well repay any person who could absent himself from business

The light grading is nearly all done and only small portions here and there of that classification require the finishing touches There is nothing now but heavy work—tunneling, blasting cutting filling and building, and this is everywhere pushed with the anxiety if not the desperation of the apprehension of the near approach of Winter Not an hour is lost, not a vacant spot is seen It is work work the drill, the blast, the crowbar the pick and the shovel are everlastingly seen and heard

We would take pleasure in noticing by name every person we met with but our readers will readily excuse us for that omission especially as would have to set out for a list of over a thousand brethren from all the nationalities represented Mormondom—we reserve our space for the progress of the railroad and what may be expected

As far as we can learn, the end of the track is to day near to Byrne s ranch a distance of one 116 miles from this city For a week or two the track laying has been reported somewhat retarded—from the want of ties and rails and this is probably true It is now a long distance from the river and to daily bring forward such heavy trains with iron and ties is a gigantic work, and every day's advancement increases the distance and difficulties to which probably will soon have to be added the icy rails and falling snows There is however no let up Durant Seymour and Reed with their army of engineers and contractors and their legions of laborers are as busy as bees, and going at their work with all the assurance of a favorable winter before them Their preparations are going forward to lay track all winter through Ties are now being distributed from Bear river to Hanging Rock in Echo Canyon and from the Weber Valley we saw ties being distributed to the same point President Young s work may be said to be completed to Echo Canyon There is however a small portion of heavy work at the head of Echo Canyon unfinished but they are grading around this and will lay a temporary track so that the grand advancement need not be retarded. In a week or more the line will be ready from Echo City to the narrows in Weber Canyon Before the rails could possibly be laid up to this point, with the most favorable weather and with abundance of material Sharp & Young would have their heavy eighty foot cut of a mountain completed the filling made and the piers built up to the first great tunnel

Anticipating the possibility of hindrance here for it is a heavy piece of work arrangements are made for a temporary track around this mountain also so that there is in reality nothing to hinder the completion of the line into Salt Lake valley by the 1st of January only the hindrance of ... We may be mistaken in our ... may be mistaken in our ... of human power ... we ... are forced to the conclusion from an examination of the work yet to be done that the terminus of the Union Pacific Railroad can not possibly be this Winter at the mouth of Echo

SMALL POX ON THE PACIFIC COAST —The San Francisco Bulletin of November 24th has the following

The small pox which now afflicts not only this city but the Pacific States and Territories is the most serious calamity that has occurred to us since the drought of 1864 Here in San Francisco we are losing at the rate of between 70 and 80 lives a month by it out of a population of 150 000 but in some parts of the interior ... is even more severe In San Juan Monterey county with a population of about 1 000 people there have been 180 cases and of these one third (60 have died Every large town in the State has had its loss though in some few favored instances it has only been a life or two The disease has traveled by every stage steamship and railroad route in California has gone by sea to all our domestic ports north and south It has crossed the Sierras and raised its head in Virginia City and found its way up the Columbia river to Portland It has domiciled itself among the pines on the shores of Puget Sound and has found victims among our British neighbors on the northern colonies It is scourging the whole coast Removal of nuisances purification of dwellings cleansing of sewers more attention to the purity of drinking water and the wholesomeness of food are all excellent and timely precautions but there is no remedy that exceeds all these in value and in certainty and that is vaccination.

The Newspaper Mob Cases

[From the S F Bulletin Nov 24.]

Under an Act passed by the last Legislature, nine suits were brought against the City of San Francisco to recover damages for the destruction of newspapers offices in April 1865, during a burst of popular fury excited by the news of Lincoln s assassination The newspapers which suffered and the amounts which they sued to recover are as follows Democratic Press, owned by W S Moss $49 000 Echo du Pacifique, in French Italian and Spanish E Derbec $50,000; L'Union Franco Americaine J B J Chamon, $ ... 0 0 News Letter F Marriott $19,097 69, Occident and Vanguard Zachary Montgomery $ 5 662 15 Monitor, T A. Brady $13,490, Irish News Jeffrey Noonan $13 000 Here were seven newspaper establishments in all claiming damages to the amount of $187 458 84 Besides these cases suit was brought by John Fine, a carrier who claimed that he was damaged to the extent of $2 000 by the destruction of his route in consequence of the suspension of certain of the newspapers above named His suit was a test case for a number of other ... Suit was also brought by Beriah Brown, editor of the Democratic Press for $50,000, to cover ... personal damages. The carrier case was some time ago decided in favor of the city in the Fourth District Court, which sustained the demurrer filed by the city and County Attorney, on the ground that the plaintiff did not show by his complaint that he had suffered any injury or damage as to property ... newspaper route not being property in any ... of which the court could take ... only employment. The Distress About the Special Session

The Democratic prints of this city are in a terrible agony about a special session of the Legislature one [illegible] calling frantically on the Governor to take the necessary steps to convene a special session and in the next declaring that the failure to do so will result in the complete annihilation of the Republican party. The solicitude which these individuals are manifesting for the preservation of the Republican party is touching indeed but as we are admonished to put little faith in the Greeks even when they bring gifts we are not quite convinced that our Democratic friends are so very anxious for our welfare as they seem

The new editor of the Herald is to be congratulated on having adopted the Domley philosophy and made an effort. The result of this effort is the astounding disclosure that "there is a deep laid and villainous scheme on foot to defraud our citizens of their justly earned dues. Do tell. It is well known,' says our oracle, 'that Gov Woods has subscribed for nine million dollars worth of stock in the East Side Railroad and there will be about six hundred thousand dollars paid by the different counties of the State into the State treasury during the interval of two years, and as not a dollar can be paid out by the Treasurer, the funds can by a proper manipulation be applied on the East Side Railroad. Now the interest of Gov Woods in the East Side road amounts as we learn from good authority to the enormous sum of one hundred dollars, current coin of the United States, which he has subscribed and paid in. If $600,000 is to be paid into the treasury by the different counties during the next two years, then the taxes under Democratic rule are to be doubled, for during the last two years only half this amount has been paid in. This increase of the revenue of the State from $300 000 to $600 000 seems to be a leading feature of the Democratic scheme of retrenchment. Are the unusually high taxes in Multnomah this year, laid on by Mayor and Commissioner Boyd, whose entire property for the purposes of assessment is valued at the magnificent sum of $100, a part of the same scheme?

We submit to the editor of the Herald if, in view of the repeated inquiries into the condition of the State Treasury and the handsome testimonial for ability and honesty awarded to the State officers a few weeks since by a Democratic Legislature, it is not about time to cease these uncandid insinuations about official mismanagment and peculation on their part? As for the "deep laid and villainous scheme to deprive creditors of their justly earned dues" which that paper talks of—does it mean by this the contemplated repudiation of State warrants by its party in the next Legislature? It would seem so, for the Herald plainly hints at this measure and almost advises it. This is all nonsense, however, for many good Democrats are purchasing largely of these warrants for the purposes of speculation, and if the Democrats should happen to secure a majority of the next Legislature their bondholding brethren will readily find a way to "persuade" the members to make the full appropriation required

As the Democracy seem to be in so much distress for want of appropriations we trust they now perceive that it would have been wise in them to have joined the Republicans in passing an appropriation bill when the latter were laboring for three successive days to get it done. But if the appropriations for the next two years would have been anything like the amount—six hundred thousand dollars—which the Herald says is to be drawn in taxes from the people, it is well that no appropriations were made. If this is what the Democrats propose in the line of retrenchment the people can save three hundred thousand dollars by electing a Republican Legislature next time—a thing which they are pretty sure to do anyway

"By all means," says Lord Bacon, "it is to be procured that the trunk of Nebuchadnezzar's tree of monarchy be great enough to bear the branches and the boughs, that is, that the natural subjects of a crown or state bear a sufficient proportion to the strange subjects that they govern, therefore all states that are liberal of naturalization towards strangers are fit for empire. Yet he cautions states against embracing too large an extent of dominion, it may hold for a time, but it will fail suddenly. If any country among the nations of the earth is 'fit for empire" it is surely our own, for it has a remarkable extent and diversity of surface an unusual greatness and variety of resources, and a people in whom the national instinct continually intensifying and expanding, is a leading idea or passion, therefore liberality in naturalization has always been our policy and will remain so. It is safe for this country; for while other nations, by freely incorporating foreign elements into the body politic have grown in individual strength but not in national unity, whereby they have met their ruin, the national principle in this country is so strongly developed and has been so firmly established by the overthrow of the late attempt at national disintegration, that no apprehension need be felt in regard to the consequences of the utmost freedom of naturalization. The "trunk of our tree is great enough to bear the branches and the boughs

For years our country has done all it could to attract foreigners. It has offered every inducement to them to come. To this end it is laboring, and has met with considerable success in establishing the doctrine that a change of nationality changes allegiance. We must and will continue to have liberal naturalization laws yet some remedy ought to be devised whereby naturalization frauds now so largely perpetrated for election purposes may be stopped and for the future prevented. A step of this kind is becoming a positive necessity. The real objects of the naturalization laws are becoming entirely perverted and those laws are now used very extensively as an engine of political corruption

The Constitution gives Congress the power to establish an uniform rule of naturalization. The power to pass naturalization laws therefore rests exclusively with Congress. The present law gives every court of record in any State the power to naturalize aliens and this taken in connection with the fact that the State Judges are elective officers and must therefore maintain their standing in their political party accounts for most of the frauds in this business. In many States no interval is required between the act of naturalization and the exercise of the voting privilege therefore when an important election is pending, reams of naturalization papers very many of them fraudulent, are often issued. The difficulty is not that the naturalization laws are too liberal they may be made even more liberal without danger. But the trouble is that the execution of these laws is given to those who manage the business exclusively in the interest of their party. The corruption which follows is becoming an evil of the greatest magnitude. It is particularly felt in the large cities and seaport towns and was manifested to a greater extent before the recent election than ever before. In the space of a few weeks prior to the Presidential election upwards of 35 000 naturalization certificates were issued by Judge McCunn of the Superior Court in the city of New York. Could there be stronger argument than this to show that the administration of the naturalization laws should be placed beyond the influence of the persons or political parties to be benefitted by them? A leading New York paper says "The extensive and outrageous swindles perpetrated in this city previous to the late elections could only have been accomplished under the system of an elective judiciary." Now as Congress has full control of this subject and as naturalization both in its nature and by contemplation of the Federal Constitution, is an attribute or act of national sovereignty, why should not the power of naturalization be vested in the national courts only? The State and Federal Governments should each act exclusively in their own sphere, and as naturalization is a national act the Federal Government should have it under its exclusive control

The "Mercenary Brigade" and Their Organ

When we consider that the Salem Unionist is owned by Hon J W P Huntington the present Superintendent of Indian Affairs and remember what his political conduct has been during the last three or four years not forgetting also that he is very anxious to retain his present official position we are not surprised to find that paper whining under some remarks we recently published about the Copper-Johnson office-holders and office seekers of this State. The Unionist says

> The OREGONIAN makes the appointment of Hon J R Bayley, to the office of Supervisor of Internal Revenue, a pretext for attacking some Federal office holders in this State, ranking them as enemies to the Republican party, and further, it pretends to be in the dark as to whether he is appointed as a Democrat or a Republican when that paper well knows that the honorable gentleman was appointed by Commissioner Rollins upon the recommendation of Senator Corbett endorsed by Senator Williams

The OREGONIAN knows nothing of the kind nor does the Unionist. We do not believe that Senator Williams ever endorsed the appointment of Dr Bayley to that position, and we are very certain that if Commissioner Rollins had been truly informed in regard to the gentleman's political course he would never have consented to his appointment. If Senator Corbett recommended Bayley for the position, he can answer for himself to the Republican party of Oregon

The Unionist further says

> The Republican party is formed of thinking men and if, occasionally, a member of it honestly differ from us in his views of fundamental principles, still, if he be willing and anxious to act with the party, and to sustain it at all vital points we certainly are not ready to read him out of the party. Nor are we egotistical enough to set ourselves up, with whip and goad to threaten all and to demand silent obedience to our expressed principles

We know that the Republican party is formed of "thinking men," but its masses scorn the purchasable crowd who are continually "thinking" what way they had better turn or what course take to always be in favor with the winning side so as to come in for the spoils of office. The success of the Fourteenth Amendment and the reconstruction legislation of Congress was vital to the existence of the Republican party, and no Republican worth the name believes that the man who opposed these measures should be trusted. Talk about Republicans "honestly differing" upon the very measures for which their party was on trial, and by which it had to stand or fall! It is an absurdity. If these persons are now willing to act with the Republican party of course we are willing to let them we will be as generous as the Unionist on this point. But we shall not go so far as to admit that this class of men are the only ones who ought to have office or be placed in positions of profit and influence. We shall even insist that they ought not to have office at all. If they simply desire to act with the party in good faith, and in this respect improve on their past conduct, we shall be as far as the Unionist from attempting to "read them out," but when they claim the right to be rewarded for their treachery, we protest in the name of the Republican party against their demands. They would have been seeking office with equal avidity from the other party, had the Democrats triumphed. Their experiments two or three years ago were simply so many steps towards Democracy, and they halted only because they were not certain that Johnson and the Copperheads would win

In the following paragraphs the Unionist manifests its satisfaction over the defeat of Mr Logan last June

> The article referred to intimated that the Republican party of Oregon is strong enough to discard all those who have displeased our late candidate for Congress, but we fail to discover anything in the result of the late Presidential contest, or in the result of the June election, to satisfy us that we can afford to discard the men who have contributed largely in times past to build up our party in this State
> In the last paragraph the OREGONIAN seeks to exhibit its scars and wounds received at the last contest. It is certain that its favorite was not elected, but we have no idea that the party at large ever did, or ever will regret its choice

This, certainly, is very singular language for a Republican journal to use. Mr Logan was our "favorite" because he was duly and fairly nominated by the Republican party of Oregon, and because he was a representative and defender of Republican principles while his opponent was a Copperhead and a secessionist during the rebellion. It is true the OREGONIAN's favorite was not elected but we fancy the Republicans of the State will not relish this sneering remark about their defeat from a professed Republican paper. Jo Smith was elected, and as the Unionist appears to take so lively a satisfaction in this result, it or rather its proprietor is welcome to all the enjoyment he can derive therefrom. We are still fully convinced that no man could have been nominated who would have run better than Logan. The vote thrown for Grant and Colfax was only 380 larger than that which Logan received. When our June election was held the prestige of victory was everywhere in favor of the Democrats, when the Presidential election was held the prestige was everywhere in favor of the Republicans. Could we have had the weight of the October victories in our favor before the June election we would have carried the State on that occasion and saved it for Grant and Colfax

The Unionist seems to be following in the wake of its predecessor the Statesman. It is well known that the course which the Statesman took when it came out for Mr Johnson was encouraged if not absolutely dictated by the present proprietor of the Unionist. It is but natural, therefore, that he and his organ should now espouse the cause of the mercenary brigade. We had a very lively fight with these people some three years ago and did not come off second best. We are prepared to go after them just as fast as they push themselves into prominence. We prefer peace but we are not willing for the sake of peace to quietly see renegades placed in official positions ahead of true and reliable men. Having cleaned out this crowd and their organ before we have confidence that we can do it again especially as we know that ninety nine in a hundred of the Republicans of this State are with us. We wage no war on any one for having merely displeased our late candidate for Congress, but if it becomes necessary we shall wage war on those who tried to lead the Republican party of Oregon into the slough of Copper Johnsonism and who now ask to be rewarded for it

HOW'S THIS? The Democratic Governor of California in his Thanksgiving Proclamation said "We are exempt from the evils of arbitrary power on one hand and popular license on the other and are enjoying the greatest of earthly blessings civil and religious liberty regulated and guaranteed by organic law." The Marysville appeal asks "How does this confession tally with the declaration about the arbitrary laws of Congress?" Will the Examiner see the Governor and enquire how he could publish such 'abolition lies?'

GOES TO WASHINGTON. It is stated that S F Chadwick goes to Washington as messenger to carry the electoral vote of this State. In response to a telegram sent to inquire about the pay the messenger is to receive, Secretary Seward telegraphed "Send one certificate by messenger to Washington, compensation twelve and a half cents per mile." This is small pay not nearly so good a thing as the Democratic Electors supposed they had in prospect

MAIL IRREGULARITIES.—It is stated that the San Francisco periodical dealers have not received any matter in four weeks because the Government ordered them sent overland and the mail contractors by that route did not bring them hence these magazine dealers have been much injured. They intend suing the overland mail contractors for damages. The same inconvenience and loss have been felt here

THE OPHIR OF THE SCRIPTURES. Advices from the new gold fields of South Africa continue to report the discoveries as very rich. The journals at the Cape claim that these mines are the "Ophir" of the Bible. If these discoveries are so valuable as reported they will result in carrying civilization into the heart of Africa

BRITISH COLUMBIA.—The Colonist bitterly assails the appointment of Philip Hankin as Colonial Secretary. It says he does not possess the capacity or character to fill the position acceptably. The Colonist also argues for the admission of British Columbia to the benefits of reciprocal trade with the United States

The Corvallis paper has an item about the Yaquina railroad and says there is "no time to lose" We should think not, if it is the calculation ever to finish it

A man named Robert Linton died very suddenly at Corvallis on the 2d inst. He fell dead from a chair in which he was sitting apparently in his usual health. He was about thirty years of age

A correspondent at Dallas, (Dec 4th), writes: The 'Methodist Church South' are holding a protracted meeting here. Among the new converts is J H Upton of the Signal, who joined last night

There was a narrow escape from wholesale poisoning in Roseburg a few days ago. A dozen persons or more ate of "head cheese" that had been cooked in a brass kettle and allowed to remain in the vessel over night. All the persons who ate of it were taken quite sick, but it is thought no serious results will follow

The Linn Co. Woolen Mill, located at Brownsville, was sold under the hammer at the court house on Wednesday last to satisfy judgments against it. The mill was bought in by one of the judgment creditors, Mr John Isom, for the sum of $5,430. The outstanding judgments against the concern amounted in the aggregate to some ten thousand dollars

The Albany Register of Saturday says: "A daughter of Allen Parker, Esq, Rowena Parker, aged six years, on Friday morning last, got hold of a small bottle of creosote which she thought was extract of cinnamon, a quantity of which she took into her mouth, and it was supposed that some of the liquid passed down her throat before she was aware of her mistake. It was supposed at first to be a case of hopeless poisoning, but through the efforts of the family physician, Dr Alexander this calamity was averted, and at this writing was thought to be entirely out of danger"

THE ADAMS FAMILY—ONE OF ITS BRANCHES.—A Washington letter writer says: I was hearing plentiful gossip upon old Washington the other day from an old lady resident when she alighted upon this luscious anecdote of romance associated with the filial term of John Quincy Adams. Mrs Adams was a haughty young woman and her favorite nephew was one [illegible] Hellen a young law student or lawyer of presence and parts. Hellen, going often to the White House saw there a domestic or servant of his aunt a very beautiful Irish girl. Mrs Adams suspected nothing of susceptibility till one Sunday night it was reported to her that her nephew was escorting the beautiful "Biddy" home from church.

She upbraided the girl severely who replied that she could not prevent Mr Hellen from following her in the street. The young man was debarred from seeing the girl for a good while till one day she disappeared. Mr Hellen had married her. She lived in retirement in this city many years and her children rank among the most excellent and reputable citizens here. Of these there were half a dozen distinguished for their appearance and character. Clifton Hellen one of them was for a good while law partner of General Thomas Ewing. One of the girls married Attorney Fant of Richmond. The father is dead. If living he would be a septuagenarian. I have this piece of kitchen cabinet history and bequeath it to that promised Jenkins who shall sweep up in the old clothes of antiquity some day and trace the holders thereof down to their button makers. Mrs Hellen is still living in this city, a stone's throw from the general post office

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES

Terrible Steamboat Accident

CHICAGO Dec 5—A fearful collision occurred on the Ohio river at half past eleven last evening two miles above Warsaw on the Indiana side. The steamer America was ascending the river and struck the steamer United States which was descending, just forward of the steps cutting into her side and sinking the United States to the main deck in two minutes. The collision was said to have occurred from a mistake in the signals. The United States had a quantity of petroleum oil on board which took fire, and within 30 seconds the boat was a mass of flames. It is supposed that seventy five or eighty persons lost their lives. Both boats were the finest and largest afloat on the Ohio and were worth $100 000. The America was also entirely consumed having taken fire while endeavoring to rescue the passengers of the United States. Those saved owe their lives to the coolness of the officers and crew of the America whose engines were kept running until driven away by the flames. There were several bridal parties on board and the [illegible] ladies passengers in all

BY ATLANTIC CABLE

LONDON Dec 5—Playfair Liberal is elected to the House of Commons for Edinburg and St Andrews. The Times says the new ministry will be completed this afternoon. We believe the following have been selected: Earl Russell will have a seat without a portfolio; Earl Clarendon, Secretary for Foreign Affairs; Robt Lowe, Chancellor of the Exchequer; Edward Caldwell Secretary of War; John Bright Secretary of State for India; Henry Wood, Lord Chancellor; J D Coleridge, Solicitor General; Chickester Fortesque Secretary for Ireland; H C Childers, First Lord of Admiralty

LONDON Dec 4—There are vague rumors afloat in this city of a general seizure of newspapers and conflicts between the troops and mobs in Paris. These rumors, though not confirmed caused a panic in the commercial circles in this city

The Times, in an editorial on the Alabama claims, argues against the Government yielding to the new demand of Mr Seward that the question of international law be submitted to the Commission. The Times says the American Commission will come committed against England's claims and by a national law the British Commissioners will be driven to the opposite view. The Times regrets that Lord Stanley has been robbed of the glory of settling these international difficulties but it is certain that Lord Stanley or whoever the Foreign Secretary may be, will pursue the same policy

LONDON Dec 4, (evening)—It is reported that John Bright has peremptorily declined the office of Secretary of State. The appointment of Earl Kimberley as Foreign Secretary in place of Earl Clarendon is believed to be his wish. In this connection it may be asserted that the full list of Ministers will be completed on Monday

PROCLAMATION!!!

Dear Parents and Children! once more I appear,
And wish you good Christmas, and Happy New Year!
I've brought you glad tidings—I've opened once more!
My Budget of Wonders—at McCormick's Book Store!
I've spread out my treasures so give me a call
And view the nice GIFTS I've procured for you all
In Presents this year we've conveyed to the town,
By Mercer's new clipper the swift Sallie Brown.
The stock is most complete. The assortment comprises
Curiosities rare of all shapes and all sizes
I've Dolls that talk—I've Babies that dance
(Some very handsome I purchased in France)
I've Fish that can swim—I've Roosters who strive
To crow so like nature you'd think they're alive
I've Guns and I've Cannon—I've neat Savings Banks,
And Soldiers that look very neat when in ranks
I've Puzzles and Pistols, that Christmas to keep,
I've Candles, Reflectors and Braskets—a heap!
I've beautiful Baskets (a nice gift for Ma)
And handsome Cigar Stands—just suited for Pa!
While there's nothing so welcome to uncle or aunt,
As a beautiful portrait of President Grant
I've Work Boxes—handsome as ever were made—
With ladies' utensils all nicely arrayed
I've nice setts of China—I've Vases of Flowers,
And Musical Boxes that play at all hours
I've Furniture, Villages, Steamboats and Blocks
That gay little joker, called Jack in the Box!
I've Tables, and Dressers for China or delf,
I've nice Solitaire, that you play by yourself!
I've new Magic Lanterns—a beautiful sight
To make all good children merry at night
For girls at school I've a nice Skipping Rope,
And for family fun I've the new Zoetrope!
I've Games that instruct and Books that amuse,
For Gifts to good people I never refuse
In fine, I've got all that each heart could desire,
To name them all over your patience I'd tire,
But call on me early, or call on me late,
I'll visit your houses all over this State—
In Washington's clime—in young Idaho
I'm sure to find children wherever I go
I've travelled for years—you all must remember
I'll be Sixty nine at the end of December
My hair is all white, and my body doth tend
To the latest sensation—the new Grecian bend!
On Christmas Eve night as in bed you all sleep,
With pack on my back down each chimney I'll creep,
I'll lay out my Presents, but oh 'twill be shocking,
Should I find a hole in any one's stocking!
So, for HOLIDAY GOODS—for Dolls sweet as honey,
Go to McCORMICK'S—you'll save half your money!
Nice Presents or Gifts—any kind you require,
You'll find at the FRANKLIN—(the number enquire)
On FRONT STREET Near Alder—105,
In fact you can't miss it—and when you arrive,
Don't ask goods at cost, for you'll find, if you try,
That goods sold "at cost" always cost very high!
But to purchasers all, this maxim I'd give Live well yourself and let others live!

{L. S.} Given at my Palace in Wonderland this 7th day of the Twelfth month being the second year of the reign of the third George in the land of Webfoot.

Curious Derivation of Phrases

The following brief notes may interest young scholars, and perhaps some old ones, in relation to certain phrases in common use

Hocus Pocus In the transubstantiating formula of the Catholic Church the priest says Hoc est corpus meum This is my body Whence has grown the conjuror's catchword and passed into the usage of ordinary life in connection with jugglery or unfair dealing hocus pocus

A Windfall There was formerly a clause in the tenure of many English estates to the effect that owners might not fell the trees as the living timber was reserved for the Royal Navy But they might use all that fell of its own accord or was knocked down by storms Hence a high wind was regarded as a friendly Providence, and the timber which it made available was called a windfall and the term was applied to other fortunate accidents

Getting into a Scrape In the old English [illegible] the red and fallow deer had a habit of scraping holes in the ground with their fore feet, sometimes half a yard deep The horses of the hunters sometimes fell into these holes and threw their riders who thus 'got into a scrape,' and after awhile the Cambridge students picked up the phrase and applied it to other perplexing matters which had brought a man morally into a fix

Bombastic Fellow — The adjective 'bombastic,' has an odd derivation of its own Originally bombast meant nothing but cotton wadding used for stuffing Shakspeare employs it in this sense The lining of ladies dresses comes from the same root. Hence, by an easy transition from the process of padding a figure 'bombast' came to signify 'pretentiousness of speech and conduct,'' as an adapted meaning, and gradually this became the primary and only sense

All Fudge —Because a certain sea captain of Charles II's time, commanding the royal ship Black Eagle, and having the surname of Fudge, was noted for telling untruths and bombastic stories we still exclaim that mono syllable when we have reason to believe assertions ill founded—an unenviable manner of becoming a household word

Put on the Tariff —So likewise because a fixed scale of duties were payable to the Moorish occupants of a fortress on Tarifa promontory, which overlooked the entrance to the Mediterranean, all taxes on imports came to be called a tariff

The Darien Ship Canal

[From the N Y Evening Post Nov 6th]

The Legislature of this State last year chartered a company to build and manage a ship canal across the Isthmus of Darien, to connect the Atlantic and Pacific oceans Peter Cooper, F M Kelley, C. K. Garrison, Marshal O Roberts Robert H. Bryan, Cyrus Butler, L T Merrill and F. A. Conkling are the Trustees under this charter The name of Mr Kelley is well known to all who have taken an interest in this great enterprise, as one of its ablest and most persistent friends

A few days ago a meeting was held at the house of Peter Cooper to organize the company under the charter, and to hear reports of the present state of the enterprise

Congress, ten years ago, required of Admiral Davis maps relating to the routes proposed for the canal, and also to give his opinion of the practicability of building a canal

Admiral Davis recommended that the San Blas route be surveyed, and he urged also a survey of the Darien route, which has never been surveyed The San Blas route has been thoroughly surveyed from sea to sea. The canal by this route would be thirty miles from sea to sea, and for ten miles of this distance a navigable river would save the expense of digging The estimated cost of this canal, one hundred feet wide and twenty five feet deep, is sixty five millions of dollars, no small sum, even in these days, when millions are flung about so rashly.

When Congress received the report of Admiral Davis, it appropriated $40,000 to repeat and review the survey by Mr Kelley of the San Blas route, and to survey the Darien route, and a resolution was passed instructing Mr Seward to negotiate with the Government of Granada for a grant to an American company. It should be understood that private surveys, such as have been made by Mr. Kelley can be made without [illegible] from the government, but the hostility of the Indians and the difficulties and dangers of the work are so great that an armed force is needed to do it thoroughly, and an armed force cannot be used without the special permission of the government which owns the territory

It is understood that our government is negotiating at this time, not only for such permission, which will be given without difficulty, but also for a grant of the best route for the canal, and there is every reason to hope that a treaty securing this important object will soon be signed.

A ship canal across the Isthmus of Darien would revolutionize the navigation of the ocean It would shorten the voyage from New York to San Francisco fourteen thousand miles, to Canton, nine thousand ; to Calcutta, four thousand, to Callao, ten thousand. Such a canal would at once draw to it a trade valued at over three hundred millions per annum, and it is estimated over three million tons of shipping would pass through it in a single year if it were now opened In fact, it would become at once a great thoroughfare of commerce

It is a great and costly enterprise, it will take years of time, and probably a hundred millions of money. But it will be done, and we hope our own countrymen will have the credit of beginning and completing it.

Tide Marks.—It was low tide when we went down to Bristol, and the great, gray rocks stood up, bare and grim, above the water; but high up, on all their sides, was a black line that seemed hardly dry, though it was far above the water.

"What makes that black mark on the rocks?" I asked of my friend.

"Oh, that is the tide mark," she replied "Every day, when the tide comes in, the water rises and rises, until it reaches that line, and in a great many years it has worn away the stone until the mark is cut into the rock"

"Oh," thought I, "that is all, is it? Well, I have seen a great many people that carried tide marks on their faces"

Right in front of me was a pretty little girl, with delicate features and pleasant blue eyes But she had some queer little marks on her forehead, and I wondered how they came to be there, until presently her mother said

"Shut down the blind, now, Carrie, the sun shines right in baby's face"

"I want to look out," said Carrie, peevishly.

But her mother insisted, and Carrie shut the blind and turned her face away from the window. Oh, dear me! what a face it was! The blue eyes were full of frowns instead of smiles, the pleasant lips were drawn up in an ugly pout, and the queer little marks on the forehead had grown into actual wrinkles

"Poor little girl," I thought "how bad you will feel when you grow up to have your face marked all over with the tide marks of passion for these evil tempers leave their marks just as surely as the ocean does, and I have seen many a face stamped so deeply with self will and covetousness that it must carry the marks to the grave

Take care, little folks and whenever you give way to bad temper remember the "tide marks

Grant's Cabinet — In the discussion of Grant's Secretaries we have heard Sherman named as the man for the War Department but we rather incline to the thought that Sherman should be made General of the army and that Schofield should stay in the War Office—a place in which he has remarkably well Porter will doubtless be Secretary of the Navy, as he ought and for Secretary of State we will be satisfied with either Charles Francis Adams or Motley For an office in which the national character may be maintained abroad by clear thinking strong speaking and enlarged views of national policy such a shallow pate as Sumner must not for a moment be named Doubtless the South should appear at the council board and Holden of North Carolina might have a seat as representing the Department of the Interior Anybody may have the Post Office that is satisfactory to Grant New York as the great financial center of the nation is entitled to have the head of the Treasury and there could not well be a better head than Henry G. Stebbins a practical man a financier of enlarged views — Herald, Nov 5th

"Carleton," in a letter to the Boston Journal from China, says that he is informed that there are men rich enough in that country to buy half a dozen such men as Astor Vanderbilt Belmont, and such as we call money kings Many Chinese merchants are much wealthier than the Rotshchilds "Carleton" has some apprehensions of the influence that populous country will have upon the United States

It is understood that the President now declines to nominate an officer for promotion to the vacancy left by Brigadier General Hooker on his retirement The reason assigned for this is the certainty that Congress at its next session, will make a considerable reduction in the army, and as the President favors the proposed reduction, it is more than probable that the vacancy will not be filled.

Mr Zachariah Wilson, Portland, Oregon writes

"It requires an article of real merit and intrinsic value to sustain itself during the stormy ordeal of public experiments Murray's Improved Magic Oil has stood the test of time and has not been found wanting The astonishing efficacy that I experienced—its curing me of Chronic Rheumatism and Lumbago, of long standing, entitles Dr Murray's Premium Lung and Liver Balsam and Improved Magic Oil to a high rank in the list of remedies for Rheumatism, Lumbago and the Distressing [illegible] etc

John English of Howell Prairie Marion county, Oregon writes

I was taken with a severe attack of Rheumatism in my knee joints and extremities accompanied with a severe cough for two months so that I had to use crutches meanwhile trying all remedies in common use Your Magic Oil and Balsam gave me instant relief and I was able to walk in four days without crutches I have in my family rheumatism since I have given your family medicines used with excellent success I have no hesitancy in saying it is the best preparation for family use ever tried for those complaints I am now on my way to South America after residing in Oregon twenty years I must now have two dozen Balsam and two dozen of your Magic Oil dollar bottles, as I am satisfied they are the best remedies in Oregon and I would not be without them in my house and when this package of medicine is exhausted I will send to your office for a fresh supply
